

Presentations and Publications

Presentations

“COVID-Related Legal Considerations for Nonprofit Employers,” a Webinar for the Pro Bono Partnership (New York and Connecticut), (February 2021), available for on demand viewing at <https://www.probonopartner.org/publications/covid-related-legal-considerations-for-nonprofit-employers/>

Visit the Pro Bono Partnership here at: <https://www.probonopartner.org/>

“Legal Considerations for the Arts in a COVID-19 World,” a presentation for the “Reopening CT Arts Venues: Science-Based Safety” series, sponsored by the Yale School of Public Health and the Shoreline Arts Alliance (February 2, 2021).

“A Community Conversation: Identifying and Addressing the Challenges from Overworked or Traumatized Workers,” an interactive Town Hall meeting hosted by Robinson+Cole (October 15, 2020)

“Advanced Legal Issues Under NYS and NYC Human Rights Law,” a continuing legal education program by LawLine (September 17, 2020), available at: <https://www.lawline.com/course/advanced-legal-issues-under-nys-nyc-human-rights-law>

“Employment Issues Related to Teleworking,” a program sponsored by the United States Department of Commerce as part of its “Coronavirus Special Topic Conference Calls Series” (March 26, 2020), available at: <https://www.ctexporters.com/special-topics-conference-calls/> (and scroll down to March 26 program)

“What Corporate Lawyers Need to Know About Non-Competes and Restrictive Covenants,” co-presented with Ian T. Clarke-Fisher, a continuing legal education program by LawLine (October 4, 2019)

“Avoiding Employment Pitfalls,” presented during the annual conference of the Northeast Regional Tax Collectors & Treasurers Association (September 24, 2019)

“2018 Legal Update,” presented during a meeting of the Human Resources Professional Association of Nonprofit Organizations (HRPANO) of New York (November 15, 2018)

presentations continued

2 Park Avenue
Suite 2018
New York, New York 10016
(212) 419-0551

2 Belden Avenue
P.O. Box 2094
Norwalk, Connecticut 06852
(203) 434-4093

Email: Matt@Miklavelaw.com
www.Miklavelaw.com

presentations continued

“U.S. Labor and Employment Implications of International Business Transactions (Update),” co-presented with Ian T. Clarke-Fisher, a continuing legal education program by LawLine (October 2, 2018)

“An Overview of the New York State and City Human Rights Law,” a continuing legal education program by LawLine (February 9, 2018)

Publications

“COVID-19, Employment and Health,” co-authored with Jonathan H. Schaefer and Earl W. Phillips, Jr., published in Scrap, the bi-monthly magazine of the Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries Inc. (September/October 2020), available at: <https://www.scrap.org/home/emarketplace#.X9aYN6pKhgs>

“Designing a Return-to-Work Structure,” co-authored with Joseph A. Barra, published in the July/August issue of PE, the flagship publication of the National Society of Professional Engineers (July 1, 2020), available at: <https://www.nspe.org/resources/pe-magazine/recent-issues/july-2020>

“Prelitigation Steps for Trade Secret and Noncompete Cases,” published in Lexis Practice Advisor, co-authored with Ian T. Clarke-Fisher and Sandra Marin Lautier (Updated, September 2020)

“Employment Law: Workplace Claims Inevitable Under Medical Marijuana Act,” published in Connecticut Law Tribune (July 29, 2014)

“Does the Supreme Court’s Ricci Decision Imperil Diversity Programs?” published in Diversity & the Bar (February 1, 2010)

“Employee Free Choice Act: Reexamining the Duty to Bargain,” published in the New York Law Journal (May 8, 2009)

2 Park Avenue
Suite 2018
New York, New York 10016
(212) 419-0551

2 Belden Avenue
P.O. Box 2094
Norwalk, Connecticut 06852
(203) 434-4093

Email: Matt@Miklavelaw.com
www.Miklavelaw.com